

Move-Over Law

On highways, rural roads and city streets, the Move-Over Law ensures the safety of workers on the side of the road, including:

- police officers,
- firefighters,
- ambulance drivers and paramedics,
- carrier enforcement officers,
- road surveillance officers,
- wildlife protection officers,
- tow truck drivers.

Adapt your driving

Obey the law and create a buffer lane when a worker's vehicle is stopped and its flashing or rotating lights or yellow arrow light signals are activated.

Penalties for not obeying the Move-Over Law

- a $200 to $300 fine, plus additional fees,
- 4 demerit points.

How to obey the Move-Over Law

- Slow down and stop if necessary.
- Put as much distance as possible between you and the stopped vehicle.

If you can do so safely:

- Change lanes.
- Cross the solid line.

Intervention on the shoulder:
